

AVON TRAIN DISPLAY

Saturday, February 18, 2023, from 10:00 am until 3 pm
Avon-Washington Township Public Library
498 North Avon Avenue
Avon, IN 46123

The Central Indiana Division of the National Model Railroad Association will be presenting a display of multiple portable and modular model train layouts at the Avon-Washington Township Public Library.

This is a FREE event. Registration is not required.

DETAILS:

Do you have questions about model trains? Are you or your family or kids interested in the model train hobby? Would you like to simply walk around and browse the model scenery? Multiple layouts of different gauges will be on display with the opportunity to ask questions and learn about the hobby. Members of the Central Indiana Division of the National Model Railroad Association will be on-site. Visit their website to learn more about them: <https://www.cidnmra.org/>

Models, parts, or accessories will not be available for sale. No sales are allowed at this event.

PARKING:

Abundant free parking will be available in the Avon-Washington Township Public Library parking lot.

TIME:

10:00 AM - 3:00 PM
